Detecting a Murderer.

Sheriff Thorne, of Calaveras county, put in an appearance at the city prison on Thursday with James W. Smaling. There were handcuffs on Smaling, and he was booked on Captain Stone's register as en route to San Quentin for life.

George Holmes, a rancher living half a mile from Berson station, in Calaveras county, disappeared. His absence from the ranch was not noticed for several days. He was twenty-eight years of age and married to a woman of forty, the sister of Smaling.

When a week had passed and Holmes did not show up in the vicinity of his holding inquiries were made, suspicions aroused, and Sheriff Thorne was asked to make a search for the missing man.

Now comes the story told by the sheriff.

"I went to the Holmes ranch," he says, "and looked around the place. There was an abandoned claim with a shaft forty feet deep that first attracted my attention. I noticed that the brush about the mouth of the shaft was disturbed. It was noon, and the sun was shining directly overhead. In my pocket was a small mirror I had purchased in San Francisco. I held the mirror so that it flashed the light into the well. There was a couple of feet of water at the bottom of the shaft. The beams of light reflected from the mirror pierced the dark waters and I saw the face of a man."

"I sent for ropes, and in a few hours Holmes' body was brought to the surface. There was a bullet hole in the back of the head. I worked the case up and proved conclusively that Smaling had lured his brother-in-law to the mouth of the shaft, fired the shot into his head and then pushed him over the brink."—San Francisco Examiner.

Rescuing Stranded Fishes.

In reply to a letter of complaint published in Forest and Stream the United States fish commissioners give an explanation of their apparent neglect of the fish in the upper Mississippi. The complainant says in his letter that while on the river between Dubuque and St. Louis he saw tons of black bass and great northern pike rotting in shallow pools, wherein they had been left by the falling of the river, and asks why the fish commission does not scoop them up and transport them to safer waters.

In 1888, say the commissioners, two cars of the commission were lent to the Illinois commissioners, together with the necessary number of men, for the purpose of rescuing the fish left in the pools along the river. From July 15 to Oct. 5 twenty-six car loads of fish were rescued and transported to Illinois waters. In 1889 two cars were used, and in 1890 three. The fish deposited were from 4 to 14 inches long.

Since then the government has been actively engaged in the work on a large scale, and has rescued many millions of valuable food fishes. The commissioners say that all states subject to any considerable mortality of fish life should take steps immediately to rescue the fish.

An English Blunder.

There was an amusing literary blunder in the leading article of an "evening contemporary" recently. It was a comminatory robbing of Peter to pay Paul, which was the more astonishing in such an unexceptionably Tory quarter. Ridiculing American proposals to amalgamate with any portion of the British empire, and patriotically disparaging American claims to glory as compared with English, the writer proceeds to quote, or, rather, misquote:

O mother of a mighty line,
Be proud of these strong sons of thine
Who wrenched their rights from thee.

"So," he explains, "sang one of America's bards." Needless to say, it was not one of America's bards at all who sang "so"—or nearly so—for the first line should run:

Strong mother of a lion line.

It was a bard no more American and no less English than Lord Tennyson. The lines, as corrected, occur in the poem, "England and America in 1793" (p. 66, in Macmillan edition of 1885). It is quite proper and patriotic, of course, to object to give America Canada; but why hasten to present her with Tennyson? I wonder what his lordship would say to it?—Pall Mall Gazette.

Steering by Electricity.

The excellent electrical device for giving an alarm when a ship deviates from her course, which was the subject of a recent invention, is being adopted on a large number of American ships. The compass card carries a light wire electrically connected with a metallic cup at the center containing a few drops of mercury. This wire is bent over the edge of the compass, and as long as the ship maintains its course the wire remains out of contact with either of two metallic stops placed at a certain distance on either side of the bent end of the wire. Should, however, the vessel depart from its course the wire fixed to the card is brought into contact with one or other of the stops, closing the circuit, and ringing a bell in the captain's cabin or the navigator's room.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Put to Sleep by Lightning.

A strange case is attracting attention at Arns, O. Ella Ragan was sitting in a doorway during a thunder storm one week ago, when lightning struck some object in the yard, and Miss Ragan fell over asleep, and has remained so ever since. She cannot be awakened. Her breathing and appearance are natural.—Cor. St. Louis Republic.

INCUMBERED FARMS.

The count of farm and home transcripts made in accordance with the mortgage clause of the Census Act has been completed by the Census office. Enumerators returned 2,419,930 farms and homes occupied by owners which were incumbered by mortgages. This includes some farms, about which the enumerators made no report and which belong partly to the class of hired, partly to the class owned free and partly to the class owned and incumbered. Until this unknown quantity, due to the carelessness of enumerators, is eliminated, it may be regarded as approximately true that 2,250,000 of the 12,500,000 families of the United States occupy incumbered farms and homes, and that 10,250,000 families occupy farms and homes either hired or owned free.

Results indicate that the average debt of a farm in Iowa is $1,289; for a home without farm, $119. If these averages hold good for the Union, the incumbrance on farms and homes of the United States, occupied by owners, is about $2,585,000,000.

These figures show why farming is not so popular in the United States as it once was. Early in the century about seven-eighths of the people of the United States lived on farms, while at the present time only about half the population is engaged in farming pursuits. The reason is that farming is less profitable than other pursuits, and the great agricultural States of the West, whose surplus products keep the balance of trade in favor of the United States, are mortgaged to the East, which produces nothing for export, but becomes rich by having the exclusive right to supply the farmers of the West with manufactured articles.

The farmer produces nothing that is benefited by a high tariff, as the prices which he receives for his grain and pork are fixed in Europe, while the manufacturer, protected from all outside competition, makes the farmer pay the prices fixed by trusts for everything used on the farm, that it does not produce; though the law which gives the East such advantages, to use the language of Mr. Blaine, "does not make a market for one more bushel of wheat or barrel of pork."

WHY ERHART RESIGNED.

Collector Joel B. Erhardt of New York, whose resignation takes effect to-day, tells why he resigned the office which caused a split in the Republican party in New York and led Conkling to call President Arthur "the prize ox of American politics." He says:

"I have resigned because the Collector has been reduced to a position where he is no longer an independent officer, with authority commensurate with his responsibility. I have given bonds for $200,000. I have received for the Government during twenty months last past $322,697,165, and for a short time was personally responsible for enormous values in money and merchandise. My duties are necessarily performed through about 1,500 employees. I am not willing to continue to be responsible for their conduct unless I can have proper authority over them. The recent policy of the Treasury Department has been to control the details of the customs administration at the port of New York from Washington, at the dictation of a private individual having no official responsibility. The Collector is thus practically deprived of power, while he is left subject to all responsibility. The office is no longer independent and I am. Therefore we have separated."

THE UTAH ELECTION.

Next Monday an election is to be held in Utah Territory for members of the Legislature and county officers. There are three tickets in the field, the Democratic, Republican and Liberal. The Liberal party is composed of Republicans and Democrats, nearly all of whom are Gentiles, while the other parties are composed of Gentiles and Mormons, the latter having abandoned the People's Party, which hitherto opposed the Liberals. It is the first time in the history of the Territory that the people have divided on National issues and the result is looked forward to with much interest. The contest is one of the most exciting ever experienced in Utah, as the success of the Republicans or Democrats ends the Liberal party, which is now in the ascendancy in Salt Lake City and Ogden. The Liberals claim that the Mormons are not sincere in abandoning the People's party and joining the Democrats and Republicans.

Boss Quay, in deference to the wishes of several prominent citizens of Pennsylvania, has resigned the Chairmanship of the Republican National Committee, and "Blocks of Erie" Dudley, who has been ignored by the Administration, in deference to public opinion, has resigned the Treasurership of the Committee. The party could better spare better men than Quay and Dudley.

Reciprocity With Spain.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—The Spanish reciprocity treaty and diplomatic correspondence pertaining thereto was made public to-day, the President issuing a proclamation announcing the full text of the treaty. It was made pursuant to the last tariff act with a view of securing a reciprocal trade by reason of exemption from "duty on sugar, molasses coffee and hides upon their importation in the United States." Under the terms of the treaty a large number of articles will be admitted free under temporary arrangement, from September 1, 1891 to July 1, 1892. After that a new list will be substituted of free articles. The list of articles on which the duty is reduced, is generally 25 per cent. The duty on wheat will be 30 cents per hundred kilograms; canned salmon free. Fruits, dried and preserved, except raisins to be admitted free, both under temporary and permanent schedule. Wheat and wheat flour to be admitted after January 1, 1892, on payment of a duty of 30 cents and one dollar respectively per hundred kilos.

Railroad Accident.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL. BELLAIRE, O., July 31.—The passenger train of the Bellaire, Faneville & Cincinnati Narrow Gauge railroad left the track three miles south of here, two cars being overturned and dragged some distance. Seventy passengers were on the train and the two cars were turned over. Plenty of assistance was soon at hand. It was found that fourteen people had been injured, four seriously and one fatally. The train was running thirty-five miles an hour and as it reached a curve the cars were noticed to sway violently, and unheeding the cries for the passengers to keep their seats, a rush was made for the doors and many frightened passengers had reached the platform when the cars jumped the track and when they turned over a moment later these were buried into the ditch.

Those seriously injured are as follows: John Morris, Baggage-master, will die; C. McElroy, John Irwin, G. P. Arlock. In addition to these, many were badly bruised, but able to take care of themselves, and this afternoon they went to their destination.

Chilian Affairs.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL. WASHINGTON, July 31.—The Chilian Minister received the following telegram from Lisbon this morning at 5 o'clock: The President Errazuriz well manned, armed and provisioned, passed by Lisbon for Chili. Intrigues and false reports of the insurgents have not been able to prevent her going. The cruiser has 200 Chilian sailors on board. A few European volunteers will remain on the Atlantic, where the rest of the crew awaits the cruiser's arrival.

Another dispatch received by the legation from Paris says in effect that the cruiser President Pinto, which stranded when leaving Toulon has been floated again without having suffered injury. The cruiser will get ready and leave for Toulon immediately to complete preparations and continue the voyage to Chili at once. The Chilian Government has a complete crew of fine sailors to meet the cruisers with whom they will continue the voyage to the Pacific.

Dakota Divorce Seekers.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL. SIOUX FALLS, Dak., July 31.—It is extremely probable that ninety-six applicants for divorce, now here from other States, will be disappointed in the realization of their desires. Judge Aitken, who holds the sword that severs disloyal hearts, having concluded to interpret the law according to the spirit instead of the letter. Hereafter applicants will have to furnish something stronger than affidavits.

French and Russians.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL. ST. PETERSBURG, July 31.—At a dinner given by officers of the Russian Artillery to the French fleet, Admiral Gorvix, toasting the Russian army, said he hoped it would cover itself with fresh laurels if the Almighty summoned it to the defense of the fatherland.

Dillon and O'Brien Repudiate Parnell.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL. LONDON, July 31.—Dillon and O'Brien's repudiation of Parnell, though a foregone conclusion, has profoundly depressed the Parnellites. Parnell hoped until the last moment to again entangle them in his maneuvers for a re-union. Their prompt and decisive declarations as soon as outside the prison doors and their refusal to listen to any advances from the Parnellites, fell like a death blow upon the faction. To-day Parnell telegraphed to his committee that the defections on every side would not make him alter his course a hair's breadth, to fill up the gaps left in the committee by deserters.

Another directorate is forming, aspiring to found a daily paper on the Parnell—Pence principle. The stoutest Parnellites fear that their cause is nigh extinct, and it will be useless to continue the struggle. It is thought Parnell will soon appeal for the support of the revolutionary patriots at home and abroad.

Deadly Gasoline.

CHICAGO, July 31.—A gasoline stove exploded in the apartments of Mrs. Gately, at 465 Milwaukee avenue, at 1 o'clock this afternoon. Mrs. Gately and Mrs. Stortz, who lives on the floor below, were both standing beside the stove. Each held her small child in her arms. The burning oil was scattered over the women and children, burning them so fearfully that they will all die except Mrs. Stortz's baby. They were frightfully burned about the arms and legs. The quartet was taken to the County Hospital, where the physicians pronounced the injuries of Mrs. Gately, Mrs. Stortz and the Gately baby necessarily fatal. Mrs. Gately and Mrs. Stortz are both poor washerwomen. Their children are mere infants.

Counterfeiters Captured.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL. ASHLAND, Or.—July 31.—Two men named Pay Ocon and Henry Nutt are in the custody of the United States Marshal here to-night on a charge of manufacturing and passing counterfeit $5 gold pieces, several of which were taken in over the counters in town yesterday. Nutt was captured in town this morning and eleven of the counterfeit pieces were found upon him. Sheriff Birdsey overtook Ocon at Hornbeck this afternoon and brought him back on the train this evening. Another of the gang is in custody at Grant's Pass and will be brought here to-morrow, when all will have a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Hammond.

Already Well Provided For.

NEW YORK, July 31.—One of the executors of the late Mrs. Hopkins-Searles says the clause in her will relating to Timothy Hopkins was not caused by any ill-feeling, but that Mrs. Hopkins-Searles had transferred a considerable amount of property to her adopted son during her lifetime, and that he was so well provided for then that there was no occasion for making any provision for him in her will. He is now on his way home from Japan to San Francisco, where he resides.

A Woman Cowhides a Minister.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL. ORANGE, N. J., July 31.—Adelaide Brown, a domestic, entered the study of Rev. Wm. C. Jason, pastor of St. John's Church, yesterday morning, drew a cowhide and commenced striking him stinging blows. He seized the whip and put her out of the study and subsequently she was jailed on a warrant sworn out by the minister. The young woman, who was thought to be out of her head, is said to be in love with the minister and angry because her affection was not reciprocated.

A Gasoline Stove Explodes and Fatally Burns a Woman.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL. FRENCH, July 31.—Mrs. J. A. King, a young woman, was frightfully burned to-day by the explosion of a gasoline stove. The clothes were burned from her body and her flesh was roasted. She cannot recover. She was married only three weeks ago.

Races at Cleveland.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL. CLEVELAND, July 31.—C. J. Hamlin's team, Justina, Belle Hamlin and Globe, were driven a mile, three abreast to a wagon, for a record, making the mile without a skip in 2:14. The free-for-all trot was won by Alvin, Rosalind Arokee, second; Homestake, third; best time, 2:15.

A Whale Ashore.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL. ASTORIA, Or., July 31.—A whale measuring 137 feet in length came ashore on Long Beach yesterday.

The Boston Globe, the leading Democratic paper of New England, publishes an able article on the silver question from Francis G. Newlands. Why is it that in the far East only Democratic papers print articles in favor of free coinage? It seems that Republican papers east of the Rocky Mountains dread arguments in favor of silver as they do arguments in favor of equitable taxation.

A fire in Seattle, Washington, yesterday morning destroyed property valued at $50,000, and burned George Williams to death.

A. O. U. W.

WASHINGTON Lodge, No. 25, A. O. U. W., meets every Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in their hall in Thompson's new building, on Virginia street, between First and Second streets. J. K. SEAMAN, M. W. aug11

ARE WOMEN EVER MEAN?

An Instance Which Shows That There Are Some Who Are Very Cruel.

"Mean!" exclaimed Sparkins, as he lighted the last cigarette in the fourth bunch since morning. "Why, the meanness of women toward each other is colossal." It was generally conceded at the club that young Sparkins was an authority on the female question. "You chaps may not know," said he, "that a woman is always worried that something may be wrong with the back of her dress. Well, that's feminine characteristic, just as the habit of sitting on the floor when they put on their stockings is. A woman on the streets is never perfectly at peace in regard to her appearance from the rear. She can look up and down the front all right, but unless she has a girl friend to advise her she is never sure about her back."

"Now, you can imagine how easy it would be to upset the peace of mind of a nervously constructed woman by making her fancy that some misplacement of attire at her back is attracting the attention of people to her. Well, now, what do you suppose I have found out? Why, that there's an organized band of young female fiends who devote themselves at odd times to the business of breaking women up on the street by conveying to them the impression that their garments are making guys of them. The plan is to look straight at a certain point of the victim's skirt just as she is passing, and then to turn and cast up the eyes to the victim's face with a look in which pity and ridicule are equally blended."

"What do these imps do but go out on to the avenue of an afternoon, distribute themselves at equal distances in pairs and proceed systematically to frighten every well dressed woman that comes along by their staring. And they gloat over the discomfiture they produce when they get together afterward. They were delighted the other day when they drove a lady back to her house, about ten blocks away, after convincing her that her white undershirt was in full view. Now, what are you going to do with a sex that's so mean as all that?"

"Nothing," replied one of the listening group. "What are you going to do?" "Well, I've got to take a couple of 'em out to supper tonight," said young Sparkins.

"After the theater?" some one asked. "Oh, of course," he replied. "These are theater ladies."—New York Letter.

Spies on a Foreign Minister.

"I was surprised to see a United States detective dogging the heels of the Argentine minister on Broadway," said a Washington visitor. "But it is privately known that complaints have been made to the state department that the Argentine people are engaged in furnishing supplies to the Chilian revolutionists. Hence this lookout, I suppose, that has been put upon the representative of the Argentine republic in this country. I happen to know the detective, otherwise the shadowing would probably never have been noticed."—New York Herald.

HIRAM S. MAXIM.

The Scientist Who Claims to Have Solved the Problem of Aerial Navigation.

The name of Hiram S. Maxim is not as popularly known as that of some other inventors, but it is fast coming to the front. As an electrician he stands second to none, and his celebrated gun, improvements in firearms and other inventions are considered by experts the world over to be the best of their kind. Mr. Maxim, who is a New Yorker by adoption, if not by birth, is full of original ideas. He has invented a dynamo machine which was brought out by the United States Electric Lighting Company, and a number of improved electric lamps. The incandescent lamp which bears his name, has its carbon strip in the form of the letter M. The Maxim lamp has the advantage over many others that it can be used with a powerful or a weak current, to produce either a bright or a more moderate light. He is now turning his attention to aerial navigation and asserts that it will be an established fact in the near future. This coming from a man of Maxim's reputation and standing is entitled to belief. His air ship is a huge kite of silk which hangs a platform carrying the engine and screw propellers, which it is to move, and force the kite through the air. Besides being able to voyage in the ship it will be a formidable engine of war, as it can drop dynamite into a city and thus destroy it without difficulty. Forts and armies would thus be useless. The principle of Mr. Maxim's air ship is that of the movement of a bird's wings while flying. Mr. Maxim is a heavily built man with a very determined and self-reliant manner. He is a member of the firm of Maxim & Nordenfledt. His partner is the inventor of the deadly weapon of warfare that bears his name.

THE BRIDGEPORT HORROR.

Colonel Hopkins' Investigation—A Revolting Spectacle for a Civilized Community.

Colonel Hopkins, who was deputed by the United States District Court to inquire into the Indian-Chinese horror which lately occurred at Bridgeport, Mono county, Cal., in conversation with a Carson Tribune reporter, stated that the circumstances of the tragedy were so revolting that he scarcely knew how to give expression concerning them. It appears that the Chinaman who murdered the Indian, cut him to pieces and threw him in the river, was having a hearing before the Justice of the Peace, when seven Indians gathered at the Court-house and demanded him, as they had previously done of the Sheriff. That the Justice, ignorant of his duty in the premises, instead of binding the murderer to appear before the Grand Jury, permitted him to leave the Court-room without guard knowing that the Indians were around the building ready to seize the Chinaman, and the consequence was that as soon as he appeared, they grabbed him and dragged the wretch along the main street to the river banks, the horrible and despairing cries of the victim ringing in the ears of all within hearing, and although a crowd of white men were present no arm was raised to stop the awful work, but on the contrary the Indians seemed to receive encouragement. As soon as the end of Main street was reached the murderers cut off the hands of their victim, then the legs and finally the head, ripped the stomach open, tore out the heart and entrails and threw them around the mutilated remains, all the while shouting and yelling like fiends.

"For an enlightened populace," said the Colonel, "the whole affair was a scandalous affair and a disgrace to the town and its inhabitants which can never be effaced, for although the Chinaman was guilty of a diabolical crime, the law of the United States was bound to protect him from the summary punishment by a barbarous tribe." Colonel Hopkins has all the details of the awful proceeding, which he will present to the U. S. authorities.

SURVEYED LANDS.

Nevada Ignored by the Land Commissioner.

The Central Nevada says: "The apportionment of the Congressional appropriation for surveys of public lands was recently made by the Commissioner and Nevada ignored. This is unjust when we consider that our adjoining States, Idaho and Oregon, received large amounts and their lands are of the same character and settlers no more numerous. The only recourse left for the settlers is for them to write to the Surveyor General at Reno and set forth the fact that they are living upon unsurveyed lands, stating about what improvements they have made, together with approximate amount of land improved and susceptible of cultivation. The Surveyor General will endeavor to get an order for survey, that the settlers may be enabled to get title to their homes."

The corner of Jackson and Dupont streets witnessed as heathenish a scene recently as any four corners in China-town ever presented.

It was about 10:30 o'clock in the forenoon, and the narrow thoroughfares were crowded, but the crowd made no difference to the Mongols who gathered there to perform their heathenish rites. First a bonfire was built in the middle of the street, then a big wooden idol fully three feet tall was carried out and placed in the center of the flames. Twenty-four bowls of rice were laid out in a circle about the fire; six bowls of fat came next, and then four roasted chickens.

A crowd of Chinese gathered with uncovered heads. First one saluted to the idol, then another, then all together. A tomtom was sounded until those in the distance thought a boiler factory had started up near by.

The big idol grinned and grinned and grinned, and did nothing but grin, albeit the flames were fast consuming his godly person. And as the idol grinned the heathen worshippers grinned, until it became a grinning match all around.

"Him bad luckee," said Tin Chum, who was asked to explain the queer performance. It seems that the family of Bod Ding Lee were consuming an old patron idol of the family because he brought ill fortune on the house. Last week Bod Lee was locked up as a vagrant, and on Wednesday Bod Ding fell ill and died. So on Friday the patron idol was burned alive.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Where Flesh Turns to Stone.

The character of the soil in and around Rapid City, S. D., has a peculiar and marvelous property; a wonderful characteristic which completely controverts the Biblical injunction, "Dust thou art, and to dust thou shalt return." For the last fifty years the "Bad Land," lying seventy-five miles to the southeast of the little city above mentioned, has been the wonderland of America, it being a locality unequalled in the world as a receptacle for petrifications of animals of both the land and water kind. But the wonders of the "Bad Lands" are equalled, in one respect at least, by the mineral saturated soil at Rapid City.

True, petrifications of remote geological ages are not found in such profusion at Rapid City as they are farther south, but what is equally as wonderful, human bodies which have reposed but a short time in the soil of those South Dakota hills are transformed into statues of stone as hard as the hardest marble. But few of these last resting places have been disturbed, and those only when friends thought it absolutely necessary; however, in each case the same peculiarity was exhibited.—St. Louis Republic.

Buddha is worshiped in Paris in various private temples, where the devotees meet regularly to pay homage to the "Light of Asia." Most of the Buddhists are Japanese, but among them are many Frenchmen and a few Englishmen.

For severe hemorrhage from the nose try holding the arms of the patient up over the head for five minutes at a time. A small piece of ice wrapped in muslin and laid directly over the top of the nose will usually give relief.

A rule allowing tenants 5 per cent. discount on rents paid the day they fall due is followed by more than one rich Philadelphian and not a few agents. It is said to give great satisfaction all around.

Congress passed the bill authorizing the construction of the Brooklyn bridge in 1869, after the secretary of war had decided that it would not impede commerce and navigation.

Five trunks full of important papers were left by the late Prince Napoleon, and it will be the endeavor of Mr. Frederick Magon so to edit them as to make from them a history rather than a memoir.
